The Five Dysfunctions of a Team

By Patrick Lencioni

Positive Approach:

- 1. They trust one another.
- 2. They engage in unfiltered conflict around ideas.
- 3. They commit to decisions and plans of actions.
- 4. They hold one another accountable for delivering against those plans.
- 5. They focus on the achievement of collective results.

It sounds simple, it's because it is simple, at least in theory. In practice, however, it is extremely difficult because it requires levels of discipline and persistence that few teams can muster.

The Five Dysfunctions of a Team

By Patrick Lencioni

Members of teams with an absence of trust...

- > Conceal their weaknesses and mistakes from one another
- > Hesitate to ask for help or provide constructive feedback
- > Hesitate to offer help outside their own areas of responsibility
- Jump to conclusions about the intentions and aptitudes of others without attempting to clarify them
- > Fail to recognize and tap into one another's skills and experiences
- > Waste time and energy managing their behaviors for effect
- Hold grudges
- > Dread meetings and find reasons to avoid spending time together

Teams that fear conflict...

- Have boring meetings
- > Create environments where back-channel politics and personal attacks thrive
- > Ignore controversial topics that are critical to team success
- > Fail to tap into all the opinions and perspectives of team members
- > Waste time and energy with posturing and interpersonal risk management

A team that fails to commit...

- Creates ambiguity among the team about direction and priorities
- Watches windows of opportunity close due to excessive analysis and unnecessary delay
- Breeds lack of confidence and fear of failure
- > Revisits discussions and decisions again and again
- Encourages second-guessing among team members

A team that avoids accountability...

- Creates resentment among team members who have different standards of performance
- Encourages mediocrity
- Misses deadlines and key deliverables
- > Places an undue burden on the team leader as the sole source of discipline

A team that is not focused on results...

- Stagnates/fails to grow
- Rarely defeats competitors
- Loses achievement-oriented employees
- > Encourages team members to focus on their own careers and individual goals
- Is easily distracted
